THE HALLMARK 1986

MISS HALL'S SCHOOL

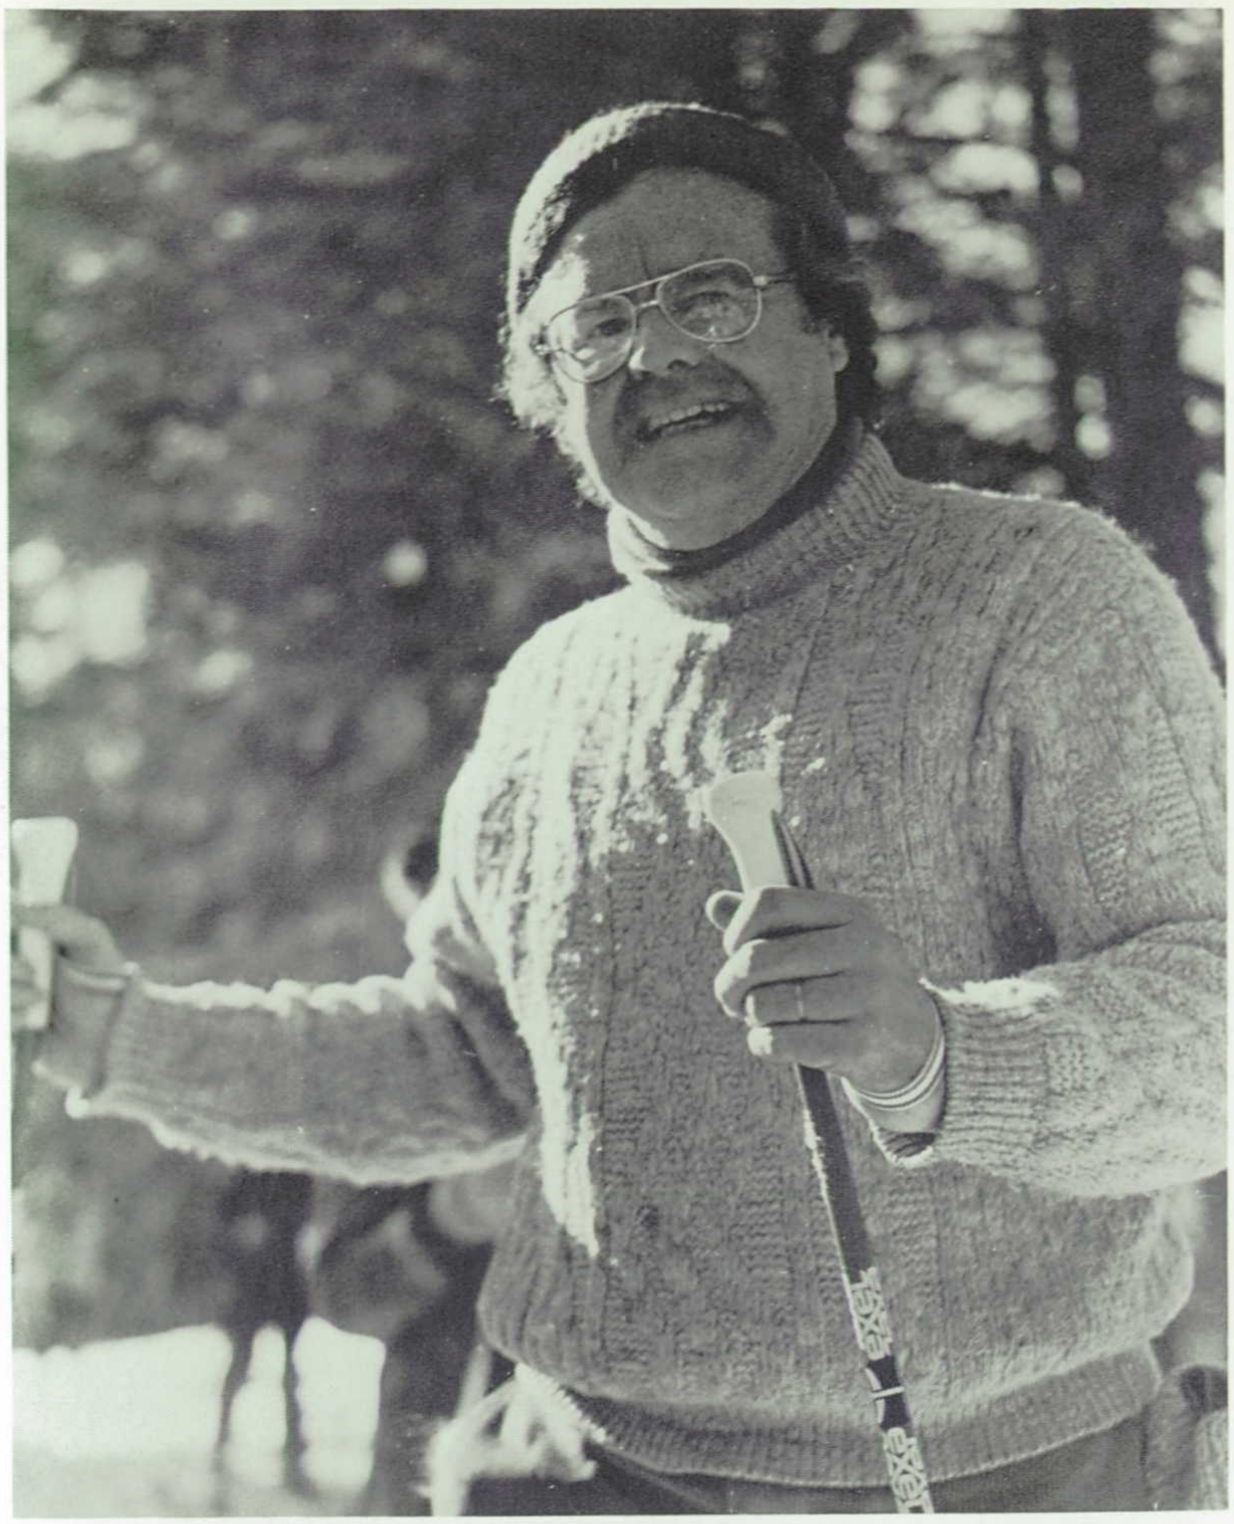

PITTSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

Everyone knows of his long-honored qualities: optimisim, common sense, masterful teaching, and a deep resevoir of interest in MHS students. But there is an extra dimension that is often overlooked, something that he usually keeps hidden away. He is one competitive hombre.

-R.B. Bussey

He has an undying, sometimes subtle humor that keeps many of the students going. In moments of his subtlty he may be portraying any of the students in his satirical manner. He is always there when you need that little bit of extra help, or when you just need to talk or complain. His help may be given in jest, but he always cares, and no one else makes you feel quite the same. Sometimes you have to wonder when he gets time to be away from his 200+ girls here at MHS to be with his family. He is a truly great man and he deserves a great deal of thanks which is why we are dedicating this yearbook, in gratitude for all the caring, to JIMMY JOE ERVIN!

-The Class of 1986

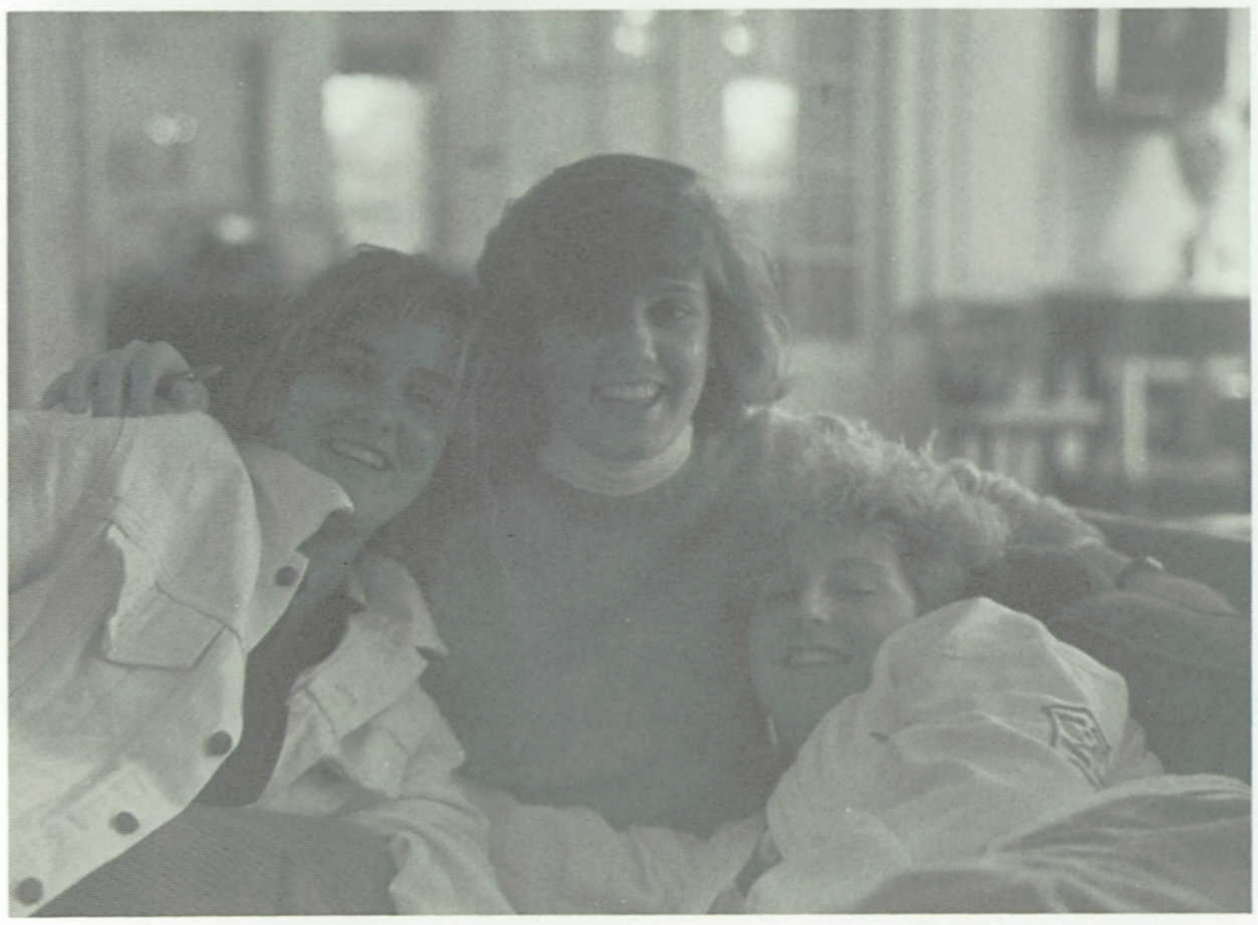

If there were a boarding school Hall of Fame, Mr Ervin would be its first inductee. He was a major factor in my decision to come to Miss Hall's two years ago and was the principal force behind the smooth transition between headmasters. He is a wonderful teacher and a first-rate human being.

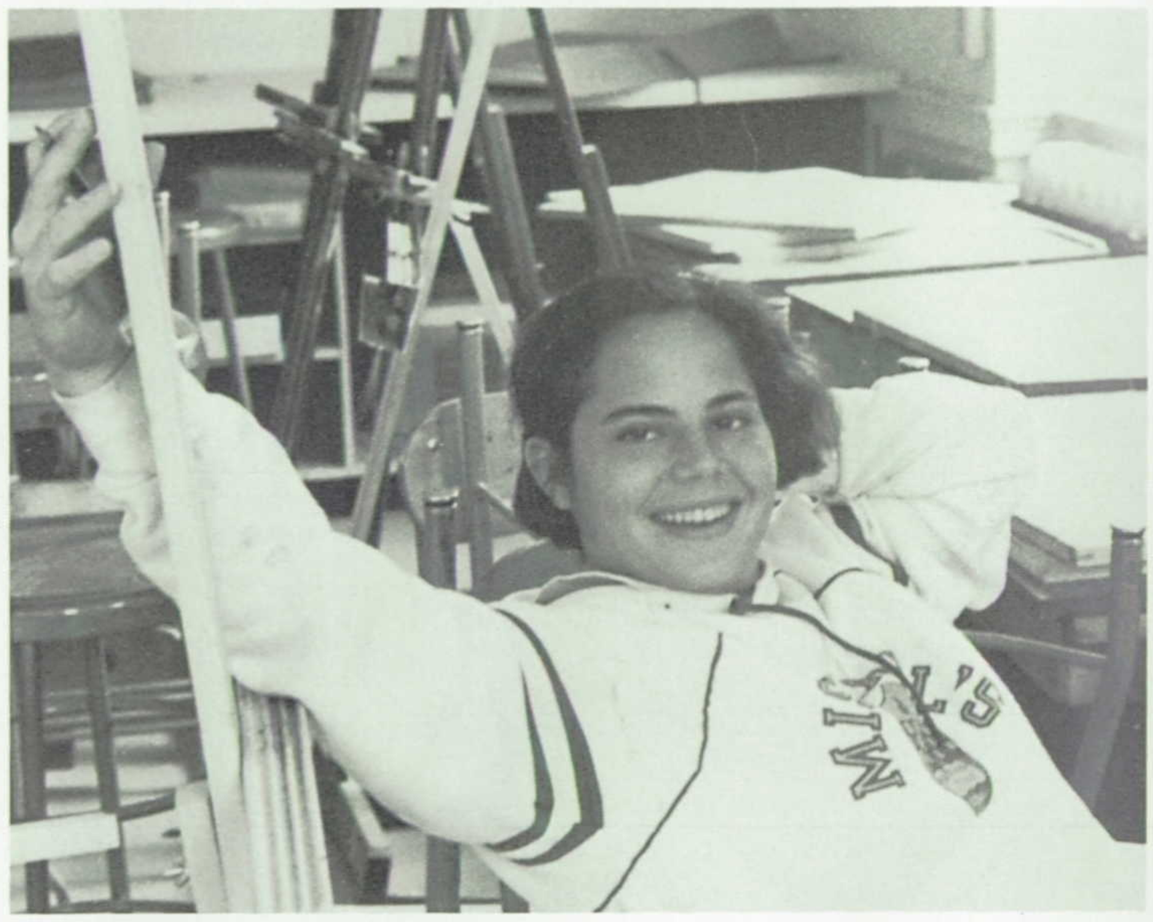

-D.G. Lee Jr.

SENIORS

LINDA MARIE WINBURN

I'm happy to acknowledge the following people as being partly responsible for my success at MHS: The MHS Faculty, my family, Wanda Allen, Catherine Kornegay, and my friends. And those behind the scenes.

Once a person has come to a certain level of maturity, it is important to know these basic things: Material things are fleeting and they fade with time.

But good health, life, and happiness are God-given and they will always be around.

. . . Thanks for the memories

JILL NAIMER

I love you Carrie, Jack, Scott, & Doug.
The storms will pass
It won't be long now
The storms will pass
But my love last forever

Well it's time for a change
I've got to move on There's got to be more than this
The feeling is strong

ELVIRA CARMEN APARICIO

You might feel tired,
failure might overcome you,
mistakes might hurt you,
your illusions might be destroyed,
your life might seem miserable . . .
But it is never too late to start again.

Time is . . .
too long for ones who wait;
too fast for those who fear;
too slow for those who enjoy;
but for those that place time
in their own future;
time is . . .
Eternity.

Gracias por todo!

Thank you for being there. Don't change at all.

MARIE - ANNE de ROSIER DREHER

The phrase "growing up" is misleading. It suggests getting bigger, competing with adults and losing youthful innocence. A bigger mouthful-and much less catchy slogan is "growing in and out". "Growing in", to become more aware of your personal goals, ideals, strivings, and deeper satisfactions. "Growing out', to expand one's volume of knowledge, of capacity, of confidence to handle with grace the next challenge and to confront without fear the surprises and anxieties that life always presents.

DEAR CLASS OF 1986-

There is Laughter today
in our voices
as we speak [illegible]
our masks unfold
and become gentle words
There is sharing today of our lives
the happiness which makes us Women for tomorrow.
Outside snow falls and a child slides with hope.
Inside we gather for today
for memories...
to hold...
to our hearts...
to our laughter...
to ourselves...
for a lonely day
far away.
